People With Instruments invites you to be part of a Community Music Project. In regular sessions, we meet to spontaneously create musical pieces and develop them together. Whether you have experience with instruments or not - the focus here is on being creative, learning and coming together. The sessions provide an open and inclusive platform to express yourself musically and forge new friendships.

INSTRUMENT CAROUSEL

Complementing the main activities, we offer the Instrument Carousel, where you can deepen your musical knowledge through workshops on various instruments, music theory, and technology.
